

The image features a highly decorative, symmetrical border. At the top, two cherubs sit on a ledge; the one on the left holds a flaming torch, and the one on the right holds a scroll. Between them is a phoenix with its wings spread, perched on a pedestal. Below this, two firefighters in dark uniforms and helmets stand on ornate pedestals. The firefighter on the left holds a bucket, and the one on the right holds a fire hose. The entire scene is framed by intricate floral and scrollwork patterns. In the center, there is a block of text in a stylized, cursive font.
